☐ Returning Defective Item for an Exchange (Covered Under 1 Year Warranty)
Address Package to: GeekStands.com-WARRANTY
Make sure you send back only the defective part(s), and not the entire item unless the entire item is defective. For example, if you ordered a stand, and a small plastic knob on the stand is broken, then only send the broken knob back and NOT the entire stand with the broken knob. If you send back items that are not defective, we might require you to pay additional return shipping if the non defective items add a significant amount to the reshipping cost of the item back to you.
